

WEDDINGS at BLUEBIRD CHELSEA

A LOCAL NEIGHBOURHOOD RESTAURANT ON A GRAND SCALE

Undeniably one of Chelsea's most iconic residents, Bluebird is a grade II listed building, starting off its life as a garage made famous for being the home of the car that helped Sir Malcolm Campbell break the land speed record.

It was transformed into a restaurant in 1997 and is most definitely as stylish as its oh-so-chic SW3 regulars. Bluebird also boasts a terrace, a café, a barbecue, a food store and bakery, a wine cellar, a contemporary bar plus the renowned restaurant, as well as an array of private dining options. The ever-changing menu offers plenty of options to indulge, and there's a hell of a cocktail list, to boot.

Getting married is a special occasion for you both as well as everyone involved. With a full wedding license, Bluebird boasts exquisite rooms to conduct your ceremony in followed by drinks, dinner and dancing from 20 to 230 guests.

Bluebird's experienced events team will manage your day from the initial enquiry through to the big day itself assisting with everything from menu planning, décor, flowers, entertainment, table plans, place cards and much more...
