

DRINKS LIST

As one of Chelsea's most cherished neighbourhood gems, Bluebird has proudly stood on the King's Road for a century, the building a gleaming Art Deco emblem of the area's vibrant spirit.

Originally constructed in 1923 as the Bluebird Motor Company's grand showroom, our space epitomised the pinnacle of automotive luxury. Designed by the esteemed architect Robert Sharp, the expansive 50,000 sq ft facility housed not only Europe's largest garage but also elegant lounges and writing rooms, offering a haven for the city's elite.

Among the luminaries connected to Bluebird Garage, was the legendary Sir Malcolm Campbell, a trailblazing speed enthusiast, whose iconic "Blue Bird" vehicles set records both on land and water. From the roaring engines to the sleek curves of his racing cars, Bluebird Garage echoed with the legacy of speed, daring and innovation.

Following in his father's footsteps, Donald Campbell continued the legacy, propelling the Bluebird name to even greater heights. With each thunderous record broken, the Bluebird cars soared into history, symbolising the relentless pursuit of excellence and the boundless spirit of adventure.

Today, Bluebird continues to honour its rich heritage, seamlessly blending its storied past with modern elegance and sophistication. As a grand brasserie offering modern European classics, a lively cocktail bar pulsating with the beats of resident DJs and a vibrant yet intimate courtyard, Bluebird invites you to seek indulgence and rediscover your sense for adventure.

Welcome to an icon reborn. Welcome to Bluebird!
